Prayer of Dedication

Invite participants to rest a hand on a copy of Voices Together while joining in this prayer of dedication.

Leader: As we dedicate Voices Together,

All: we join our voices

Leader: with the voices of those who taught us to sing and pray:
friends, family, church communities, those who stand beside us, and those we have never met.

All: We join our voices

Leader: with the voices of those who go before us in faith:
16th-century Anabaptists and medieval mystics,
20th-century activists and early communities of Jesus-followers.

All: We join our voices

Leader: with the voices of those we know from Scripture:
Paul and Silas in prison, Mary overcome with joy,
Miriam and Moses, psalmists, and prophets.

All: We join our voices

Leader: with the voices of those who speak, and sing, and sign in many languages, in communities large and small, urban and rural, emerging and established, in many expressions of worship and music.

Leader: And when we struggle to join our voices, we pray:

All: *for patience as we learn new ways of worship and song,
for understanding when we encounter the unexpected,
for forgiveness when we rush to judgment, for wisdom in choosing what and how much to attempt,
for courage to take risks and to fail,
for faith that we are held in God's grace, for hope that we can grow together as the body of Christ, for love of God and neighbor strengthened and expressed through worship and song.*

Leader: With gratitude:

All: We give thanks to God

Leader: for poets, composers, and visual artists who help us sing and pray in ways that are both familiar and new about changing realities and eternal truths.

All: We give thanks to God

Leader: for committees, denominations, and publishers, volunteers, supporters, and donors,
for the hundreds of people and the tens of thousands of decisions that create a hymnal and worship book.

All: We give thanks to God

Leader: for the communities of worship and song that surround us, filling our hearts, stretching our minds, moving our bodies, and stirring our spirits.

All: We give thanks to God for Voices Together

Leader: and dedicate these books and the worship they support to the glory of God, in Jesus Christ, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

5 TIPS FOR RECEIVING VOICES TOGETHER

www.VoicesTogetherHymnal.org
To order Voices Together, call 1-800-245-7894

01 Form an implementation team

Organize dedication activities, plan hymn sings, prioritize songs to introduce, and make sure worship leaders and musicians have access to all the Voices Together products. Include a pastor, musicians, worship planners, Sunday school teachers and youth leaders, and people to work on web and print communications.

02 Reflect on your community

Acknowledge the range of responses to a new hymnal: excitement and curiosity about new material, grief over letting go of some familiar songs, and the challenge of the unfamiliar. Consider how to invite different groups into the process, across age, language, musical ability, and worship preferences.

03 Set realistic goals

Prioritize which worship resources to use, and introduce only a handful of new songs each month. Continue to sing the songs your congregation knows and loves, and introduce a new song instrumentally or as other special music to help people become familiar. See the worship leader edition for more helpful ideas.

04 Explore additional resources

The accompaniment edition and worship leader edition have supplemental resources for musicians and leaders. The app edition, projection edition, and audio recordings help congregations worship both at home and together. VoicesTogetherHymnal.org hosts teaching videos, history, event information, and more. Also visit AnabaptistWorship.net and TogetherInWorship.net for ideas and support.

05 Get everyone involved

Create opportunities for everyone to become familiar with Voices Together. Look at the book. Listen to recordings. Have people of all ages read, lead, or respond to the songs, prayers, Scripture readings, and artwork. Create opportunities for discussion and exploration within and outside of worship.
